Dear Parents/Caregivers,

We have had an amazing week this week with many excursions and activities. This week students have also been busy practising their Christmas Carol's ready for the Christmas Concert on Wednesday 19th December after the Grade 6 Awards assembly at 9:00am.

Grade 6 DOXA Melbourne City Camp

On Monday this week our Grade 6 students headed off to Melbourne for their 3 day city camp, everyone had an amazing time! Places we loved visiting included the Old Melbourne Gaol, the Melbourne Star, the Shrine of Remembrance, the Big Issue where the students learnt about homelessness, a most popular activity was shopping at Queen Victoria Market, we were all enthralled by Parliament House, we learnt about pre-European Melbourne on the Aboriginal Heritage Tour along the Yarra River, ACMI, we amazed at ice skating displaying outstanding perseverance and we made music at the Victorian Arts Centre. I would like to thank all the students who attended the camp, you were a credit to our school and your families.

MOVIE EXCURSIONS

What a way to finish off the year a trip to the movies... This week our Grade 1,2,3 & 4 students enjoyed an excursion to the Bairnsdale Cinemas to watch the Grinch. Everyone reports that it is a great movie. The students had a play at the All Abilities playground before returning to school.

Prep Tornados

The Preps had lots of fun yesterday creating their own 'tornado in a bottle'.
